

International Geography Bee

International Geography Bee 2019 Canadian Championships Middle School Division Round 2

1. Charles Jones and his party fended off a wolf pack near this lake which was explored by fur trader Samuel Hearne. It's not Baker lake, but in 1978 pieces of the Soviet satellite Kosmos 954 fell near this lake. The Lockhart and Taltson Rivers are tributaries of this lake where the Dettah Ice Road is located. This lake is named after a First Nation indigenous people of the Dene group. For the point, name this second-largest lake in the Northwest Territories and deepest lake in North America.

ANSWER: Great Slave Lake

2. This region's department of Calvados is home to a namesake apple brandy which was widely offered to invading forces in World War II. This region's largest cities include Caen, Cherbourg, and Le Havre. A series of beaches in this region were assaulted during Operation Overlord. For the point, name this region of northern France from which William the Conqueror launched an invasion of England.

ANSWER: Normandy

3. A canyon named for this metal in northern Mexico is home to the Tarahumara people. An archaeological complex named for this metal is found in the basin of Lake Superior. The Chalcolithic period saw heavy use of this metal in tools. Chile is the world's leading producer of this metal, which names the country of Cyprus and is mixed with tin to form bronze. For the point, name this reddish-orange metal used in wiring.

ANSWER: copper [accept Cu]

4. The five-pointed star on this country's flag symbolizes the five colonies that its namesake ethnic group inhabited. Hargeisa is the capital of a breakaway region of this country which had been colonized by the British, unlike the Italian-colonized south. Until recently, this country's economy depended in large part on piracy in the Gulf of Aden. For the point, name this African country with its capital at Mogadishu.

ANSWER: Somalia

5. A state park named for these landforms is named for a Sleeping Bear, while another group of these landforms is located around Warren, Michigan. The United States' most recently established national park is named for these landforms, which make up a former national lakeshore in Indiana. Types of these landforms include barchans. Groups of these landforms are known by the Arabic term "erg". For the point, name these landforms that consist of large mounds of sand.

ANSWER: dunes

6. This island's Northland Peninsula contains the Tamaki Isthmus and the Bay of Islands, as well as its city of Whangarei. The Treaty of Waitangi was signed on this island, and this island is separated from its Southern neighbor by the Cook Strait. This island's largest city is Auckland. For the point, name this island that contains its country's capital of Wellington.

ANSWER: North Island

7. This country is where the fire took place that is the subject of the Deep Purple song "Smoke on the Water." The so-called "Rösti line", named for a type of potato pancake, divides this country into two cultural regions. Jura is the newest of this country's 26 administrative divisions. The Romansch language is spoken primarily in this country. The World Economic Forum is traditionally held in this country's city of Davos. For the point, name this country with its capital at Bern.

ANSWER: Switzerland [accept Suisse, Schweiz, Helvetia]

8. The Aures Mountains are a continuation of this mountain range. Mount Toubkal is the highest peak in this mountain range and its country. The Tamazight language is spoken primarily in this mountain range, which is home to a significant Berber population. For the point, name this mountain range in Morocco and Algeria named for a Greek titan who held up the world.

ANSWER: Atlas Mountains

9. Rhythmic tumba music was developed in this country's colonies. This country controls the islands of Saba and St. Eustatius and the Papiamentu language is spoken in one of this country's colonies. This country divides the island of St. Martin with France and controls the "ABC" islands, Aruba, Bonaire, and Curacao. For the point, name this colonial power that founded cities including Oranjestad and Willemstad in its Caribbean colonies.

ANSWER: Kingdom of the Netherlands

10. The first offshore oil platform in the world was controlled by this country near Neft Daslari, or Oil Rocks. Zaha Hadid designed a curved-roofed "center" named for this country's first president, Heydar Aliyev, which is located in this country's capital on the Absheron Peninsula. This country controls the exclave of Naxcivan (nock-CHAY-vahn) and fights with its western neighbor for control of Nagorno-Karabakh. For the point, name this Caucasian country with its capital at Baku.

ANSWER: Azerbaijan

11. US Army officer Charles Bonesteel helped demarcate this country's southern border. A town in this country made mostly out of cardboard nicknamed "propaganda village" contains a 525-foot-tall flagpole. The city of Dandong hosts many guest workers from this country, and this country is separated from its northern neighbor by the Yalu River. This country claims that two of its leaders were born on its sacred Mount Paektu. This country's Juche Tower is the tallest building in its capital. For the point, name this country ruled by the Kim family since its independence in 1945.

ANSWER: North Korea [accept Democratic People's Republic of Korea, DPRK]

12. An island named for this river that contains a tower named for this river is located in one city's Kaisermuhlen neighborhood. This river's delta is located in the Dobruja region. After a NATO bombing campaign, the city of Novi Sad was left without any bridges over this river. This river passes through the Iron Gates gorge and meets the Sava River at Belgrade. For the point, name this river that flows through capital cities including Vienna and Budapest.

ANSWER: Danube [accept Donau, Duna, Dunav, Dunarea]

13. This country contains the national parks of Brecon Beacons and Snowdonia. Offa's Dike separates this country from its eastern neighbor, while its northwest corner is indented by the Menai Strait. The Plaid Cymru party seeks independence for this country, and the Bristol Channel separates this country's city of Swansea from another country. This country's flag features a green and white field with a red dragon. For the point, name this constituent country of the United Kingdom with its capital at Cardiff.

ANSWER: Wales [prompt on United Kingdom before neighbor in line 3, do not accept or prompt on England]

14. This country's Yacopi region is a global center of emerald mining. The African-based Palenquero language is spoken in this country. The Marquetalia Republic was established by one guerrilla group in this country. This country's cities of Popayan and Cartagena are centers of cumbia music. This country's city of Medellin was a hub of cocaine trafficking in the 1980s. For the point, name this country terrorized by the FARC whose capital is at Bogota.

ANSWER: Colombia

15. On this holiday, some rural villages take part in a ritual known as "bone washing". Cockscomb flowers, marigolds and copal resin are used together during the observance of this holiday. A special bread formed in strips that look like bones and candy skulls are traditionally made to commemorate this holiday. For the point, name this holiday syncretized with All Soul's Day in which Mexicans commemorate deceased ancestors.

ANSWER: Dia de los Muertos [accept Hanal Pixan, Day of the Dead, All Souls' Day until mention]

16. This river's source is located at Lake Granby, and this river's northernmost tributary is the Green River. This river only reaches the sea when waters are released from its many dams. An engineering mishap relating to canals connected to this river created the Salton Sea. Dams including the Glen Canyon Dam on this river create lakes including Lake Mead and Lake Powell. For the point, name this river that flows through the Grand Canyon that shares its name with a mountainous state.

ANSWER: Colorado River

17. This country's muridiyya Sufi brotherhood is headquartered in its holy city of Touba. This country's Casamance region is home to a secessionist movement, and this country's ports, which could send representatives to the French parliament under colonialism, include the island of Goree and Saint-Louis. This country's Cap Vert is the westernmost point on the African mainland. For the point, name this West African country with its capital at Dakar.

ANSWER: Senegal

18. A city that was known to the Greeks as Cottigara was a major ancient port near this river's delta, and was known to locals as Oc-Eo. A species of giant catfish found in this river may be the world's largest freshwater fish. This river's tributaries include one that flows through a lake that dramatically expands in autumn, Tonle Sap. In China, it is known as the Lancang River. For the point, name this Southeast Asian river that flows through Laos and Vietnam.

ANSWER: Mekong River [accept Lancang Jiang before mention]

19. The coldest temperature in this province was recorded at the Smith River settlement. Canada's second largest wine-producing area, the Okanagan Valley, can be found in this province. Lake O'Hara is located in this province's Yoho National Park and Mount Fairweather is the highest peak in this province. The most populous city in the province is located at the confluence of the Fraser River and the Georgia Strait. For the point, name this Western Canadian province home to Victoria and Vancouver

ANSWER: British Columbia

20. A white elephant served as the emblem of this country's medieval kingdom of Lan Xang, which was succeeded by a kingdom named for this country's city of Luang Prabang. This country's Plain of Jars is dangerous due to unexploded ordnance from the US's bombing of the Ho Chi Minh Trail, which ran through this country and its southern neighbor. For the point, name this Southeast Asian country with its capital at Vientiane.

ANSWER: Laos

21. A novel about a wily abolitionist is the namesake of one variety of this crop, Northern Spy. One variety of this crop is named for the Australian Maria Anna Smith, and John Chapman is best known for spreading this crop through the American midwest. A cup named for this fruit is the trophy for an annual college football game in Washington State. For the point, name this crop that produces Fuji and Honeycrisp varieties.

ANSWER: apple

22. One national park on this island has a name translating to "the land that never melts". This island's Cape Dorset is the namesake of an ancient culture found on it. This island may have been identical to "Helluland", a region mentioned in Icelandic sagas. This island's Foxe Basin is connected by a narrow passage to its neighboring sea, and the Davis Strait borders it to the East. This island's largest city is located on its Frobisher Bay. For the point, name this island that contains the city of Iqaluit, the largest in the Canadian Arctic.

ANSWER: Baffin Island [accept Qikiqtaaluk]

23. Sir John Franklin led an 1825-1827 expedition named after this river. Navigational impediments along this river include the Sans Saults Rapids and The Ramparts. In 2008, the Deh Cho Bridge was constructed to span this river. The Liard and Peel rivers are tributaries of this river. This river is named after a Scottish explorer who allegedly gave it the initial name of "Disappointment River" after discovering that it emptied into the Arctic Ocean. For the point, name this longest river in Canada

ANSWER: Mackenzie River

24. This country's East contains its majority-black Limon province, and this country's main airport is in its city of Liberia. This country is nicknamed the "Switzerland of Central America" for its relatively high degree of wealth and because it has not fought a war since 1946. For the point, name this Central American country with its capital at San Jose.

ANSWER: Costa Rica

25. A January 2019 study showed that this animal switched to its characteristic diet 5000 years ago, likely in response to human pressures. This animal's habitat is protected by the Wolong Nature Reserve. The city of Chengdu, located near its primary habitat, is the location of an annual festival dedicated to this animal. This animal serves as the logo of the World Wildlife Federation. For the point, name this large bamboo-eating ailuopod native to China.

ANSWER: giant panda [prompt on panda]

Backup

The bonatus species of this animal is only found in Poland and Belarus's Belavezha Forest. The Zubron is a hybrid of this animal and a domesticated cousin. A David Mamet play is titled for a rare nickel whose design depicted this animal. The TV magnate Ted Turner founded a chain of restaurants intended to popularize these animals' meat. These animals were frequently hunted from transcontinental trains, and these animals were the main food source for tribes such as the Lakota. For the point, name this animal who once roamed the West.

ANSWER: bison [accept Bison bison, buffalo]